

Saxon: the Story of a True American Motorcycle

Saxon, a true American motorcycle, is unique and authentic. A symbol of strength and success. It represents the style of a man who knows what he wants, and who dares to make his own choices. He has an eye for quality and sophistication. He is a rebel in his own style. The rider experiences the freedom and rebellion of riding the open road. He is at one with himself and his bike. His Saxon is a unique expression of his individuality.

A true American product, the nature of a Saxon motorcycle is represented by the eagle within the company logo. The strongest of all birds, he is an emperor who symbolizes power and authority. The eagle has strong focus and knows exactly what he wants, just like the Saxon driver.

Both Saxon Motorcycle Company and Saxon Motorcycles Europe are managed by their founders, business professionals with strong backgrounds in manufacturing and management, with a passion for motorcycles. They have great knowledge not only of the product and its possibilities, but also of building a successful company. It is this experience that provides a strong foundation for a product of excellence.

Making the choice to own a Saxon is a true form of self-expression. Each Saxon is a bike which is custom built and therefore fits the driver completely. It is an elegant machine that retains its value. A motorcycle synonymous with style and abundant with charisma, that is an experience all of its own. Each Saxon represents an unmatched level of comfort, sophistication, and reliability, complete with a 2-year factory warranty.

In Europe Saxon is the number 1 USA production custom motorcycle!
